Our mission

For centuries, cultural trends have simultaneously commenced from and moved into Dresden. Here, local and global inventive ideas, traditional and avant-garde movements are converging in an exceptional manner.

Like the river that is incessantly drifting as a dynamic yet reliable force through Dresden, cultural change and artistic diversity distinguish the city on the Elbe as an internationally renowned hub of arts and music. The foundation of arts and music for Dresden strives to facilitate this kind of diversity. As a nonpartisan supporter of music, contemporary arts as well as artistic and cultural education, the foundation invites people to engage in a global network promoting that current trends may move into Dresden and radiate across the borders of the city, state or country. Public figures and private individuals take action within our foundation in order to support young artists, to trigger creative processes and to inspire Dresden's cultural discourse.

The foundation of arts and music promotes projects in the areas of music, contemporary arts as well as artistic and cultural education. The foundation reserves the right to choose funding projects on its own initiative. Our foundation seeks to actively help shape arts and culture in the city of Dresden. We deliberately cooperate with other foundations, institutions and initiatives in order to identify projects and to have a positive impact on the society we live in.

Funding principles

The foundation primarily supports and promotes projects that

- make a distinguishable contribution to Dresden's recent cultural discourse and to advocating a modern city of arts and culture
- are initiated within Dresden and are attracting supra-regional attention
- draw artists, musicians and cultural trends to Dresden
- promote talented young artists and musicians
- trigger inventive performances and feature exceptional programmatic ideas
- are made accessible to or have a sustainable impact on the general public
- distinguish themselves by active citizenship and private initiative and/or
- cooperate effectively with relevant partners.

The foundation of arts and music for Dresden invites private individuals and companies from Dresden, Germany, and the world to contribute to the cultural discourse and to join our efforts. Friends and supporters of the foundation gather within the board of trustees, an inspiring network that seeks to strengthen Dresden as a city of arts and music. We cordially invite you to become a member of our board of trustees!
